ORDER:

In the reference read above, the Secretary, A.P. Women's Commission has stated that there is no regular posts in the cadre of Junior Assistant, Senior Assistant, Superintendent or Record Assistant are sanctioned to the Commission to attend deskwork and that the Commission is therefore facing lot of difficulty in processing petitions and in maintaining files and records.

2. The Secretary, A.P. Women's Commission has further stated that presently the Commission is receiving 500-700 petitions every year and approximately 50 new cases are processed per month in addition to the old cases and counseling is conducted for settlement of cases that the number of petitions have increased in Women's Commission, since its inception and that the Desk work i.e., registration of petitions, correspondence, maintenance of files, registers, records etc is being attended by Section Officers themselves without the supporting staff of ministerial staff.

3. The Secretary, A.P. Women's Commission has therefore requested to sanction regular posts of two (2) Senior Assistants for the A.P. Women's Commission to manage the workload effectively and to maintain the records, registers etc.

4. Government after careful consideration, hereby sanction two (2) posts of Senior Assistants for the A.P. Women's Commission, subject to the condition that these posts shall be filled only on deputation from other Government Departments.

5. The Department for Women, Children, Disabled and Senior Citizens and the Secretary, Andhra Pradesh Women's Commission shall take necessary action accordingly.
